

Duke University Executive Vice President Tallman Trask III will speak at the Academic Facilities Council Spring Conference 2012

Tallman Trask III is the chief administrative and financial officer for Duke University. He also serves as Treasurer. He was appointed Executive Vice President in August of 1995. Prior to that, he served for 8 years as Executive Vice President at the University of Washington, and before that he was Vice Chancellor for Academic Administration at UCLA. Dr. Trask is also an Adjunct Professor of the Practice of Education. He received an AB in History from Occidental College, an MBA from Northwestern, and a PhD from UCLA. In 2002 he was elected an honorary member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA).

As Executive Vice President and Treasurer, Dr. Trask is responsible for the budget, financial affairs, procurement, debt, campus planning, architecture, maintenance and construction, real estate, human resources, academic and administrative computing, audit, safety and security, and auxiliary services (including dining, stores, parking and transportation). He is an ex-officio member of the Trustees' Committees on Business and Finance, Facilities and Environment, Human Resources, and Audit. He also serves on the Duke University Management Company Board of Directors, and holds a faculty appointment as adjunct professor in the Program in Education.

Dr. Trask will give the conference keynote presentation at the conference's formal dinner on Wednesday evening, April 25th @ Duke University.

AFC Spring Conference 2012 @ Duke University, April 25-27, 2012

This is a 3-day facilities management learning intensive to focus on technology, sustainability and facility management human and physical resources. There will be building tours, speakers and training. It's expected to be an amazing conference.
